Environmental Compliance & Advisory Services

Dear Sir/Madam

Greetings from CII.

For last 120 years, CII has been working to create and sustain an environment conducive to the growth of Indian industry and development of India. CII's Centres of Excellence develop and undertake new services for the businesses to keep them abreast with global standards, while leveraging their intellectual capital. It has nine Centres of Excellence, one of which is the CII-ITC Centre of Excellence for Sustainable Development (CESD).

CESD brings to you Environmental Compliance and Advisory Service (EnCAsE). It is a cost-effective tool for regular/ Up-to-Date monitoring and tracking of new and upcoming Environment Legislations in India. EnCAsE have the following key features which will enable you to understand the Indian regulatory framework for management of Environment and Natural Resources in easy and efficient way.

Key Features

Regular Informative Updates on environment legislative changes through e-mails for effective communication. Two official email IDs would be registered per subscriber facility/location.

Easy to archive electronic copies of Notifications, for quick retrieval and sharing. All the updates would be carrying unique identification number to refer while interacting with our helpline.

Free Webinars on Basics of Environmental Legal Compliance to help you arrive at a basic understanding of Regulatory Framework.

Advisory support to your technical queries through a dedicated Helpline. Site specific compliance and advisory services will be charged separately.

Unlimited updates (on as and when basis) during your subscription period. There will not be any slack time for sending out Updates.

Updates on CESD capacity building Training programmes/ Workshops on diverse aspects of "Sustainability" to help you move beyond compliance.
